

December: Tzedakah / Justice

...bringing Jewish life and learning to your door.

1. READ

It's never too early to teach your children about the important Jewish value of Tzedakah. Tzedakah (from the Hebrew for "justice") is about giving money and/or assistance to those in need.

2. ASK

How can you help someone in your community?

Can you think of where you would like your Tzedakah money to go?

3. DO

One way to help is to save your coins and give what you collect to help in your community. Collect coins in your PJ Library Tzedakah box*. When your box is full, you can count your coins here.

Coins	How many?
Pennies
Nickels
Dimes

*If you haven't received a PJ Library Tzedakah box, contact Robyn Cohen at rohen@jewishlearningventure.org and she will put one in the mail to you!
