Activity:
Show Your Love

Love is an emotion, meaning it's hard for other people to know we're feeling it unless we tell them in some way!

How do you like to tell people that you love them?

Try doing the following:

- Give a compliment to 5 different people.
- Ask 4 different people a question about themselves. (Hint: try asking about what they like to do for fun, what their favorite animal is, or something that made them smile recently.)
- Have you learned something interesting recently? Share it with 3 different people.
- Find a way to help 2 different people.
- Give a surprise gift to 1 other person. (Hint: draw a picture, make a friendship bracelet, or bake something!)
